President's Message

Hello Members,

Well, didn't we just have the nicest luncheon event in October! After our lovely lunch, we were treated to an interesting presentation by professional Travel Advisors, Aimee Leon and Erin Philp, on special options for travel offered through their agency, Avante-Garde Travel of San Diego. Now that Covid is settling into more a remote possibility than an immediate danger, we can think about getting out and exploring parts of the world that we have always wanted to visit. Aimee gave us examples of expedition cruises to places like Antarctica and the Galapagos Islands; luxury travel adventures that might include guided safaris and game drives in Kenya and Tanzania; "Close to Home" travel (Mississippi River cruises, Rocky Mountain tours); and other customized travel experiences you could plan, by either joining a small group or designing your own private guided experience. Makes me want to get out there and see the world! Special thanks go to our Club Vice Presidents responsible for Programs, Lynn Cramer and Madelyn Reina, for planning this event!

Madelyn Reina, Aimee Leon, Lynn Cramer, and Erin Philp

Ginny Siepel with Lois Harmon, winner of the Joker's Wild Drawing ($10)

Marcia Sowers won the beautiful Halloween See's Raffle Basket.

Arlene Siravo and Joan Falkosky in Halloween spirit outfit!

The November Luncheon will feature our Annual Wednesday Etc. Fundraiser, this year called the "HOLIDAY STREET FAIRE." Many of our members are making contributions through their Interest Group Baskets and through their donations of food items, crafts, books, games, puzzles - all to enrich your holiday events. So please plan to come early (doors will open at 10:30 a.m. for shopping) and stay for the special Raffle Drawings after lunch. We are very grateful to have a wonderful "Blessings of The Season" Raffle Drawing this year -- an extra special gift of $700 in Visa cards inside a lovely Jewelry Box -- come to see if you might be the winner!

For reflection:
Some words of encouragement to enrich your day:

"We're so busy watching out for what's ahead of us that we don't take time to enjoy where we are."

Do you know who said this? If not, your *answer is below. Implication: Take a minute to look around and appreciate the beauty, humor, and love you have in your life right now.

*These words appeared in the Sunday Comics of April 17, 1988, in the "Calvin and Hobbes" strip for that day, created by Cartoonist Bill Watterson.
