President's Message

Spring is just around the corner and that means St. Patrick's Day is coming up soon! Get ready for our traditional corned beef and cabbage luncheon as well as a wonderful program from Sea World. We'll be learning about their ongoing marine animal rescue and ocean conservation efforts, and how these programs contribute to a healthier environment for us all.

Then in April, mark your calendars for our annual Fashion Show, this year sponsored by Chico's. Please plan to join us for these great programs!

— Linda Freeman, President

ANNETTE HUBBELL'S "WOMEN WARRIORS" PRESENTATION

On February 12, 2025, Annette Hubbell, author, historian, and performer gave a very impressive performance enacting the lives of three historical ladies: Harriet Beecher Stowe, a novelist and abolitionist of slavery in the 1800's wrote over 30 books – the most famous "Uncle Tom's Cabin." She was also the mother of seven children. Harriet Tubman, who escaped from slavery and is notable for helping approximately 800 other slaves reach freedom via her "Underground Railroad", and Corrie Ten Boom, who along with her family harbored and saved hundreds of Jews amid the Nazi Holocaust during World War II.

March 12, 2025 LUNCHEON

Featuring

Kevin Robinson

Sea World, Senior Animal Care Specialist

Kevin Robinson will discuss the history and current activities at Sea World. This program will be an exciting and educational look at one of San Diego's most popular attractions.

We will have a behind-the-scenes peek at SeaWorld's rehabilitation and rescue efforts. SeaWorld San Diego is not just about rides, shows and exhibits - the facility is also doing its part in assisting with the health of our planet's biosphere.
