President's Message

Despite the cool and rainy day, our Valentine luncheon was a memorable occasion. Everyone arrived early, filled with excitement for the special celebration. The weather did not dampen our spirits of the gathering. The attendance of 59 members and guests was enthusiastic. We even had a few husbands join us. Our lunch featured Baked Salmon that

Lynn Cramer and Joe Gandelman

Joan Falkosky

was delicious as well as our chiffon strawberry cake for dessert. The highlight of the afternoon was our program featuring Joe Gandelman our talented ventriloquist. His creative puppets captivated our members and guests which gave him their full attention. The laughter and enjoyment expressed by everyone made the event truly special.

LUNCHEON

Featuring

Nathan Fry & Janet Hammer

Nathan Fry and Janet Hammer have delighted audiences for over 35 years. They give their own spin to great music from every decade of the last 100 years and the song list is extensive! Nathan covers all instruments on his keyboard and together their voices blend beautifully.

Don't miss this exciting performance by two very talented people.
